ARTICLE I: NAME

This organization shall be known as the:

METROPOLITAN ST. LOUIS ASSOCIATION FOR COURT ADMINISTRATION

A not-for-profit Missouri organization.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND TENETS

PURPOSE: ARTICLE II – PURPOSE AND TENETS

The purpose of this Association shall be to promote the proper administration of justice through education, networking, and collaboration with judicial partners.

TENETS: ARTICLE II – PURPOSE AND TENETS

- Promote and develop the association as an agency for the professional benefit of Court Administrators and other judicial partners.
- Promote a better understanding of his/her official duties, obligations and responsibilities in the judicial process.
- Encourage Association members to be active participants in the Association and performing services that may best meet the interest and needs of the Association and the public we serve.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

The membership of this association shall be open to any person who is actively engaged in a field related to court administration.

There shall be three (3) classes of membership:

ACTIVE: ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

1. Any person serving as a clerk of the court, court administrator, or other recognized title or assistant to the administrative title, may become an active member upon the payment of dues. Active Members may vote, hold office and serve on committees All Active Members are expected to attend a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of regular membership meetings held each year. The yearly cost of an active membership is fifty dollars ($50.00).

ASSOCIATE: ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

2. Any person engaged in a field related to the work of the court and its administration, may become an Associate Member upon the payment of dues. A member of the judicial system and/or prosecutor's clerk role would be in this membership classification. Associate members may vote, hold office, and serve on committees. All Associate Members are expected to attend a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of regular membership meetings held each year. The yearly cost of an associate membership is fifty dollars ($50.00).

RETIRED: ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

3. Upon retirement from the judicial system, any active member in good standing will be eligible for this class of membership upon payment of dues. Retired members may serve on committees and may vote, but shall not hold office. The yearly cost of a Retired Membership is ten dollars ($10.00).

No member shall be elected to office unless the current year’s dues are paid by February 15th.

Non-members must be affiliated with a municipality and the MSLACA municipality’s employee to attend MSLACA meetings. Non-members shall not hold any position on the board, shall not serve on any committees and shall not vote.

ARTICLE IV: EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board shall be regulated by the adoption of a Policy and Procedures Manual, shall supervise the affairs of the Association, and shall take measures to continue growth and carry out its purposes. Any necessary changes to the Policy and Procedures Manual shall be done by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Any changes to the Association’s bylaws shall be done in pursuant to Article VII of these bylaws.

The Executive Board consists of all Officers and the Directors who have been elected by the membership or appointed by the President to their respective positions.

Within thirty (30) days after the election, the President shall create from the vote of the membership and his/her appointees the following Executive Board consisting of officers as required to carry on the work of the Association.

POWERS: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board is empowered to create, combine, or dissolve the committees listed herein this article and to change the committee’s composition or responsibilities.

Unless otherwise directed by the membership, items in which the Executive Board has full authority to act on behalf of the Association include:

- Program plans and budgets
- Position statements (Statement in favor of or against a particular stance of situation. Ex. regarding legislative matters)
- Application for grants and contracts

OFFICERS: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Officers of this Association shall consist of:

- ◆ President
- ◆ Vice-President
- ◆ Secretary
- ◆ Treasurer
- ◆ Immediate Past-President
- ◆ Historian
- ◆ Associate Member Representative
- ◆ Directors

TERMS: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The terms of office for an Officer shall be two (2) years, commencing at the Association's banquet and ending after two (2) years at the close of the banquet.

The President, Vice-President, Immediate Past-President, and Associate Member Representative may not service consecutive terms of office in the same position unless he/she has been appointed to or directed by these bylaws to fulfill the unexpired term of a vacated position. All other Executive Board members may serve consecutive terms if elected by the membership or, where appropriate, appointment by the sitting President.

ELECTIONS: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Associate Member Representative shall be elected by the membership in January every two (2) years during the odd numbered years. The Associate Member Representative shall be voted in by Associate Members exclusively. All other Officers shall be appointed by the elected President, except for the Past-President. All Officers must be a member of the Association in good standing. If candidacy is not declared for any eligible board member position timely and in compliance with this article it shall be the duty of the elected President to appoint all eligible Officers as set forth herein within the first thirty (30) days of the election.

CANDIDACY: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

All declarations of candidacy and related forms must be submitted to the chairperson of the Nominations Committee by October 31st of the even numbered years for an election in January and be provided to the membership at the membership's year end meeting.

PRESIDENT: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The President shall be elected by the membership. It shall be the duty of the President to carry out the purpose of the association, preside at membership meetings of the Association and of meetings of the Executive Board. The President shall appoint the Historian and Directors to the Executive Board, as well as any additional appointment as set forth in these bylaws. The President shall be ex officio, a member of all committees, with the exception of the Nominating Committee. The President shall propose goals for the Association for his/her term of office to be presented to the membership at the first meeting of his/her term and render an annual written report each year to be presented to the membership at the first meeting of the following year. Both shall be included in the meeting minutes. At the conclusion of the President's term, he/she shall serve the next term as the Past-President as set forth herein.

VICE-PRESIDENT: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Vice-President shall be elected by the membership. If there is no declaration of candidacy filed to service as Vice-President pursuant to this article, the President shall appoint a member of the Association in good standing. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to assist the President in the discharge of his/her duties. In the President's absence or vacancy of office, the Vice-President shall assume the full responsibilities of President. The Vice-President shall be designated Parliamentarian and shall govern all meetings of the Association consistent with these Bylaws and serve as the Director of the Education Committee.

In the event the Vice-President cannot complete their term of office or take the office of the President after the President's term (e.g., no longer employed by a court), the following action will occur:

- The current President will remain in office as President and will immediately order the Nominations Committee Chairperson to prepare a Declaration of Candidacy to go out in the next meeting notice or by immediate mail to all members. The Nomination Committee Chairperson shall read the slate of nominated officers, prepared by the Nominations Committee, at the membership meeting prior to the election, usually taking place in November of even numbered years. All active members of the Association will be given the opportunity to vote for the nominated officers during the election month, usually taking place in January of in the odd numbered years. The elected officials will be sworn in and take office at the Banquet.

SECRETARY: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Secretary shall be elected by the membership. If there is no declaration of candidacy filed to serve as Secretary pursuant to this article, the President shall appoint a member of the Association in good standing. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep minutes of all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Board and shall preserve and retain all papers, letters, and transactions of the Association. He/she shall deliver his/her successor all Association records in his/her possession immediately after the installation of a new Secretary. He/she shall also assume all secretarial duties as assigned by the Executive Board.

TREASURER: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Treasurer shall be elected by the membership. If there is no declaration of candidacy filed to serve as Treasurer, pursuant to this article, the President shall appoint a member of the Association in good standing. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive, collect, and have custody of all funds of the Association.

The Treasurer, with the consent of the President of the Association, may appoint a member from the Board of Directors and/or general membership to assist in his/her duties as deemed necessary. These duties may include bookkeeping and assorted clerical work, but will not include the signing or issuing of checks or any other type of payment associated with the welfare of the Association.

IMMEDIATE PAST-PRESIDENT: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

It shall be the duty of the Immediate Past-President to assist the President during the transition period and to serve as an advisor throughout the term of the President. The Immediate Past-President shall be a voting position and may serve as a chairperson of a standing committee, if appointed by the sitting President.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER REPRESENTATIVE: ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Associate Member Representative shall be elected by the Associate Membership exclusively. If there is no declaration of candidacy filed to serve as Associate Member Representative pursuant to this article, the President shall appoint an Associate Member of the Association in good standing. It shall be the responsibility of the Associate Member Representative to be the voice of the Associate Membership on the Executive Board regarding the needs of Associate Members pursuant to the purpose and tenets of the Association.
